

Lincoln University Cooperative Extension invites everyone to attend their second annual

In Touch with Nature

Field day at Alan T. Busby Farm in Jefferson City.

Date: Saturday, October 3
Time: 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.
Address: 5124 Goller Road off US-54 W.

Enjoy and learn from a diversity of exhibits, hands-on demonstrations, and walking & wagon tours including :

Dutch oven cooking demonstration

Aquaculture tour

Environmental games and face painting

Petting zoo:
Goats, sheep, and chickens

Storytelling

Landscaping with native plants for butterflies

Restoration of native warm season grasslands and savanna

Nature photography

Nature books and native plants for sale

Learn to build a raised bed for gardening

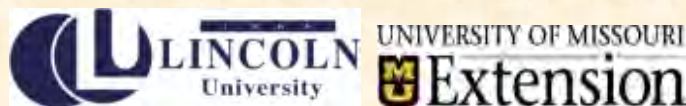

Wildflower stories

Free and open for everyone
Snacks and drinks will be provided

Directions: From US-635 merge onto US-54W via the ramp to Jefferson City, continue past the junction to MO-179, the junction to MO-CC, and the bridge over Neighorn creek. At the top of the long hill move to the left lane. Turn left onto Goller Rd. Goller is on the opposite side of a Phillips 66 gas station. Look for signs.

For more information about this event please contact Nadia Navarrete-Tindall (navarrete-tindall@lincolnu.edu) or Michael Tarka (TarkaM@lincolnu.edu) or visit the website: <http://www.lincolnu.edu/pages/2526.asp> or call 573-681-5392

Children accompanied by adults are welcome.

Randy Tindall Photos